About me

Junior web developer and Information Management student at the University of West Bohemia in Pilsen. I graduated in application and web development at SPŠE Plzeň. I have advanced knowledge of WordPress, HTML, CSS, JavaScript and SQL, plus the basics of React and Python. I like meeting new people and picking up new skills. Automation and AI interest me most, along with finding ways to make life simpler with them.

Experience

since 09/2026 · community role

n8n Ambassador @ n8n · Prague

- Growing the Prague n8n community by organising meetups, hackathons and talks

08/2025–09/2026 · hybrid

Junior web developer @ Mravenci.cz

- WordPress and Elementor websites from written briefs or Figma designs
- Testing and folding in feedback from clients and senior colleagues
- Servicing, updates and long-term maintenance of client sites

Selected work

AUTOMATION / AI — 2026

Open Day Radar for Studujvpk.cz @ Mravenci.cz

- Replaced manual checking of 55 school websites, the dates now find themselves
- Python pipeline: fetch the sites, classify the snippets with an LLM, diff against the previous run and write to the sheet the client's website reads its content from
- Includes a deeper audit built on Playwright that also covers JavaScript-rendered sites and dates buried in calendars
- Own evaluation set for comparing AI models

Python · Playwright · API

FINAL-YEAR PROJECT

LaceHub

- Web platform for sneaker resellers
- Automatic matching of supply and demand
- When inventory matches, an email goes to both sides

React · Tailwind CSS

INDEPENDENT WEB BUILDS

- Full delivery – from talking to the client through structure and visual design to producing the content and handing the site over

Community

I regularly attend AI meetups, hackathons and tech conferences at home and abroad, and I'm an active member of The Vibe Coders. In my free time I play trumpet in several orchestras and play chess for fun.
